Notice to the Public and the Profession

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

On September 30, 2021, Canada will mark its first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. As September 30th will now be an annual federal statutory holiday, the Tax Court of Canada and its Registry offices will be closed for the day.

The date will also be a holiday under the Tax Court of Canada Act and all related Rules. As such, any provisions where holidays impact Court timelines will be engaged.

The Registry will contact any parties whose hearing dates may be affected by the upcoming holiday.

Dated this 1st day of September, 2021.
